Cuspidal automorphic representations of GSp(4) can be written in terms of local factors which have finite dimensional subspaces of congruence subgroup fixed vectors. The dimensions of these spaces can be computed by investigating the representation theory of the finite group. We will discuss this method and how it can be used to give dimension formulas for spaces of cusp forms.