We study a canonical basis for each of the two dimensional weakly holomorphic modular forms on the full modular group. We first prove a relation between some of these Fourier coefficients and a generalized Ramanujan τ function. We then use this to prove that the Fourier coefficients of these forms are often highly divisible by 2.