

CONIC THETA FUNCTIONS

WINFRIED KOHNEN

ABSTRACT. The talk will be a report on recent joint work with Folsom and Robins about so-called conic theta functions, which by definition are obtained from usual theta series by restricting the summation to the intersection of the lattice with a polyhedral cone. We will give some modularity resp. non- modularity properties of these objects.